NEHU Celebrates National Unity Day

The University celebrated the 141st Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel as National Unity Day (Rashtriya Ekta Diwas) on October 31, 2016 by organising the Run for Unity at the NEHU Main Campus. The run also covered the adjoining Umshing village to spread awareness about Unity for the Nation.

A large number of students, non-teaching staff and teachers took part in the event which was flagged off by Prof. S.K. Srivastava, Vice-Chancellor, NEHU at 7.00 am from gate number five. The run ended at the office of the Vice-Chancellor where prizes were awarded to the winners in different categories.

Prof. Srivastava motivated and boosted the morale of all the runners by participating in the event with great enthusiasm.

After the run, all the participants and organisers observed one-minute silence in memory of the martyrs who laid their lives for the nation. This was followed by a pledge taken by all for unity, integrity and security of the nation. The programme concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

Meanwhile, an Essay Writing Competition for all the students of the University was organised on November 3, 2016 at the NEHU Campus in memory of the contribution and efforts of Sardar Patel towards the unification of independent India.

chief guest while Prof. Henry Lamin, Pro-Vice-Chancellor was the guest of honour at the Multi-Use Convention Hall.

In his speech Prof Srivastava said that the university is committed to push the proposal for setting up of a tribal institute as assured by the former Union Human Resource Development Minister, Smriti Irani, during her visit to the university earlier this year.

In his introductory, CSR Tata Steel

Chief, Biren Ramesh Bhuta, stressed on the importance of preserving the tribal tradition and culture.

Prof Desmond L Kharmawphlang of the Department of Cultural and Creative Studies, NEHU in his vote of thanks said the conclave aims at focusing on two issues - tribal development and health system.

“We have invited speakers to discuss the issues confronting the different tribal communities and would accordingly draft a resolution to be placed before the Samvaad which will be held at Jamshedpur,” he said.

The event in Shillong was divided in three technical sessions - Two on October 14 and one on October 15. There was also a cultural function on October 14.

The first session was dedicated to this year's Samvaad, which is tribal health while the second session had discussions on tribal issues relevant to this region.

The third session was devoted to traditional poetry, music and folklore.

The conclave saw participation of representatives of the different tribes and communities of the eight North East states which included the traditional medicine practitioners of these states.

These traditional medicine practitioners exchanged views and knowledge about traditional medicine and also displayed their traditional medicines.
