MAJOR ATTRACTIONS!!!!

Guest of Honour

It is our pleasure to notify that John Edwards, (Senior Research Professor) St. Francis Xavier University & Adjunct Professor (Graduate Studies), Dalhousie University has consented to be the Guest of Honour for the Conference (ICLL- 2017).

Places of interest

Shillong, commonly known as the 'Scotland of the East' is the capital and hill station of Meghalaya. Meghalaya, one of the states of North East India, is also known as the 'abode of cloud'. It is indeed one of the favourite haunts of the multitudes of people and tourists and has perpetually allured and mesmerised visitors owing to its scenic beauty and natural panorama. Cherrapunjee (approx.. 53.9 kms from Shillong), Mawsmi Caves (approx. 58 kms from Shillong) and Elephants falls (approx.. 13 kms from Shillong) are the major spots that one can visit during one's stay in Shillong apart from 'Lady Hydari Park', 'Ward's Lake' and 'Shillong Golf Course' which is situated in the heart of the city. Come and be enthralled by the beauty of nature that Shillong and Meghalaya at large boast.

Accommodations

Old Guest House, NEHU Shillong
New Guest House, NEHU Shillong

Publications

As the outcome of the conference, the organising committee has decided to publish selected papers depending on the merit such paper contributes to the issues of Linguistic Landscaping. Note: only papers which are selected and presented at ICLL-2017 will be accepted for publication in a book form.
