

The main aim of education is all-round development of an individual i.e., Physical Development, Mental Development, Spiritual Development, Emotional Development, Moral Development, and Economic Development. The foremost aim of education is 'Selfreliant'. The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 has focused on multi-disciplinary approach of teaching, learning and research. The NEP has also stressed us to focus on research and integration of ICT in Education and Research. It is possible to achieve anything through hard work and love. According to Mahatma Gandhi 'Peace and Nonviolence' are the most powerful weapons to change the world. Nelson Mandela rightly said that 'Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world'. Non-Violence means avoiding not only external physical violence but also internal violence of spirit. Non-Violence is both a principle and a practice. The principle of non-violence affirms the active use of non-coercive and non-aggressive means to create a more peaceful context. It is possible to create a happy and healthy world through the Gandhian Principles of Non-Violence and Peace. The International Day of Non-Violence is observed on 2nd October, the birthday of Mahatma Gandhi, leader of the Indian independence movement and pioneer of the philosophy and strategy of nonviolence. The name of Mahatma Gandhi transcends the bounds of race, religion and nation-states, and has emerged as the prophetic voice of the twenty-first century. The world remembers Gandhi not just for his passionate adherence to the practice of nonviolence and supreme humanism, but as the benchmark against which we test men and women in public life, political ideas and government politics, and the hopes and wishes of our shared planet (UN, 2007). The main aim of the workshop is to sensitize our students and scholars to carry forward the thoughts and practices of Mahatma Gandhi to create a happy and healthy world.
