About the Department

The Department of Education, NEHU Shillong, is one of the oldest departments of the University which was established in the year 1976. The department offers two years M.A (Education) and two years M.Ed Programme both spreading over four semesters. The department also offers Ph.D Programme in Education. The department began with a man's dream to create an institution where students would be educated to actualize their potentials and succeed as human beings. It is an institution not only striving for academic excellence but also producing seasoned human beings who will take the reins of the nation and become valuable asserts in the great progeny of teachers. In keeping with developments in the educational strategies in the globe, the Department has been envisioned to develop into a strong centre for providing quality education. We are committed to contribute for the future of the nation by creating seamless educational opportunities. The Department is going to offer the Integrated Teacher education programme (ITEP) from next academic session to the person who choose their profession as professional teachers with the latest knowledge & skills of pedagogy.

About NEHU

The North-Eastern Hill University, a Central University, was established by an Act of Parliament (Act 24 of 1973), at Shillong, the capital city of Meghalaya. The prime objective was to set up a teaching and affiliating Institution for the hill areas of the North-Eastern Region in order to develop the intellectual, academic and cultural background of the people of this region. The University became functional on July 19, 1973 with Dr. Chandran D. S. Devanesan as its founder Vice-Chancellor. The Permanent Campus of the University located at Mawlai Umshing, Shillong, in the East Khasi Hills District is geographically surrounded with hill tops and Pine trees spread about Twelve Hundred acres (approx) of land area. The administrative department and the examination block are surrounded by the academic departments so as to have easy accessibility for the students.

Keeping with its objective, the University has been striving for the academic excellence of the people of North-Eastern region. The University comprises eight schools: School of Economics, Management, and Information Sciences (SEMIS), School of Education (SE), School of Humanities (SH), School of Human and Environmental Sciences (SHES), School of Life Sciences (SLS), School of Physical Sciences (SPS), School of Social Sciences

(SSS) and School of Technology (SoT). The University has forty-seven academic Departments and a Centre for Distance Education (Figure 1). Thirty-six Departments and one Centre are located in Shillong campus, with eleven Academic Departments situated in Tura campus.

About Faculty of Education, Tribhuvan University

Faculty of Education has a glorious history which is connected with the establishment of College of Education on September 9, 1956 with an aim of preparing trained teacher educators, educational researchers, planners and administrators. Tribhuvan University was established in 1959 after College of Education which was later affiliated with this university in 1963. Thus, Faculty of Education has become the forerunner of Tribhuvan University. The Faculty of Education has its unique identity and structure. The Faculty of Education (FoE) is one of the largest faculties at Tribhuvan University spread over the country. In the present context, it has 26 constituent campuses and 560 affiliated campuses with Central Department of Education and Graduate School of Education. Each of these campuses, departments and school have established different subject-wise departments to exercise various academic as well as pedagogical practices. The FoE offers a wide range of courses in Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.), Master of Education (M.Ed.), Master of Philosophy (M.Phil.) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Education. Since its establishment, FoE has been contributing to the nation by producing and supplying all kinds of human resources needed for schools and educational sector of the country.
