ABOUT NEHU

NEHU was set up by an Act of Parliament on 19th July 1973. The objectives of the University, are "to disseminate and advance knowledge by providing instructional and research facilities in such branches of learning as it may deem fit; to pay special attention to the improvement of the social and economic conditions and welfare of the people of the hill areas of the North-eastern region, and in particular, the intellectual, academic and cultural advancement". The number of students turning for their Master's degrees and research students working for their M.Phil./Ph.D. degrees is close to 1700. The undergraduate colleges affiliated to the University enroll about 18,000 students. The faculty strength is over 300. In a short span NEHU has matured into an institution with a serious academic and social and cultural agenda and a clear vision for its future growth.

ABOUT SHIKSHA SANSKRITI UTTAN NYAS, NEW DELHI

Shiksha Sanskriti Utthan Nyas (SSUN), New Delhi, is a national organisation which profoundly works for educational and cultural development of India. The organisation was established on 2nd July 2004 with the aim to work for enhancement quality of research in India in collaboration with higher education institutes of the country. Its Founder Shree Dinanath Batra started it with the help of other organizations, inter alia, Shiksha Bachao Andolan, and further facilitated by Shri. Atul Kothari, Secretary. This organization is working to change and improve the education system. Different courses of education in the country are employed in text books in Indian languages, culture, religion, traditions and systems. In this connection, the Nyas has started an effort to give a new alternative to the education of the country, and with this mission, it has been striving for bringing about a change in education based culture and nature of progress of India, and above all, the overall development of the country through character building and personality development of youths.
