Annual Report

2019 - 2020

From the Vice-Chancellor's Desk

I feel privileged to present before you the Forty-sixth Annual Report on the activities and achievements of our University for the year 2019–2020. This Annual Report is a reflection of the milestones that we have achieved through our overall endeavour to strive towards excellence. In its 46 years of existence, NEHU has achieved distinction and recognition in both academic and non-academic domain. The achievements for the period under report reflects the University's motto – RISE UP and BUILD.

NEHU is committed to achieving what it has been set up as objectives with a vision to develop academic leadership, keeping in consonance with the national and global perspective that values diversity and inclusion. Its mission is, therefore, to achieve excellence in teaching, learning and research, capacity building, social outreach, skill development and innovative academic programmes.

The University is spread over two campuses located in Shillong and Tura with 44 teaching departments and one centre. There are 310 teachers and 5007 students with an appreciable teacher-student ratio of 1: 16. There are 72 colleges affiliated to NEHU, which offers undergraduate and postgraduate courses in different disciplines. In this reporting period, 14502 students from the University were awarded degrees in its XXVI convocation graced by His Excellency Mr. Ram Nath Kovind, the Honourable President of India, as the Chief Guest.

The academic output involving research activities of the faculty during 2019–2020 has been satisfactory with approximately 683 research papers published in national/international journals of repute including books, book chapters and conference proceedings. The academic departments of the University organized as many as 97 national and international seminars, conferences and symposia. Many of our faculty members were involved in 115 extramural research projects funded by national and international agencies. During 2019–2020, 29 research projects were successfully completed and a good number of consultancy services were rendered by our faculty. Several collaborative research projects were also executed by the University faculty in various disciplines of Arts, Science and Technology during the period.

NEHU signed an MoU with IIT Guwahati with the objectives, viz. IITG- academic support to NEHU, internship programmes at IITG, joint degree programmes, IITG faculty support to NEHU and vice-versa, short-term training programmes, guidance in infrastructure development, joint twinning programmes, creation of Centre of Excellence and joint short-term programmes and workshops, thus to facilitate co-operation for developing new areas of R&D at NEHU.

In a follow-up to the visit of Her Royal Highness of Thailand, Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn two years ago, the academic collaboration between NEHU and Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok was strengthened further through an animated workshop organized by NEHU, Shillong, in collaboration with a team of innovators, graphic designers and artists from Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok.

The University sent 22 number of students to Japan under the exchange programme, 'IRIS', an initiative fully sponsored by the Govt. of Japan, with an objective to promote talented students of the North-East India, to understand Japanese culture, technology in the fields of environment and disaster prevention.

The Incubation Centres at the Shillong and Tura campuses were inaugurated this year, with an objective to attract talented students to share their innovative ideas for transformation into products and thus useful for the society at large.

I would like to place on record my sincere gratitude and indebtedness to the teaching and non-teaching staff, students and other stakeholders for their untiring efforts and contributions made towards achieving the goals of the University. I am grateful to the members of the Editorial Board for their commitment in timely completion of the Annual Report, which presents a gist of valuable information about North-Eastern Hill University for the year 2019–2020.

Academic Collaborations

Academic collaboration is an integral part of teaching and research as enshrined in the Act and Statutes of NEHU. One of its main objectives is to collaborate with other universities and research organizations for such academic purposes. During the year, the University has signed MoUs with IIT Guwahati and several other institutions of National and International repute. Besides, the faculty members have also established academic collaborations with eminent scholars and scientists within and outside the country.

Hostel Accommodation

In total, the University has 26 hostels. The Shillong campus has 12 hostels for males, 11 for females and 01 for International students whereas the Tura campus has 01 hostel each for male and female students. A total of 2193 students were provided hostel accommodation at Shillong and Tura campuses during the year under report. Of these the campus residential facility was availed by 48% female and 52% male students. As many as 1304 students (59%) belonging to the Scheduled Tribe category were allotted hostel accommodation. The category-wise number of students residing in University hostels are shown in Figure 9.
